The best investment we can make

When you read a startling expose of the schooling conditions in Memphis or some other city in our vast nation don't you fervently wish that there were something that you, as a private citizen, could do? Well, there is; and the California Teachers Association is urging you to do it at this very time.

It is a simple matter of supporting the bill for Federal Aid to Education in every way possible.

This bill strives to do exactly what its name indicates; it would aid educational systems and serve as an equalizer for the schools throughout the nation, making an equal standard of education possible.

This bill is part of a nationwide program to establish a minimum standard of education in our country. The proposed appropriation of three hundred million dollars would be used for aid to poorer school districts and would not, as many think, put the federal government in control of the state school system.

When asked how our own Carmel school system might be affected by this bill, Superintendent of Schools Stuart Mitchell said that our standard would not be lowered and that we would not receive any aid; but the other schools in our state who needed some aid would receive it in order to raise standards to compare with the desired standard.

It is important, however, even though our school system is not directly affected, that all of us give our active support to such a measure in order to help our nation achieve a high standard of (Continued on Page Four)

This issue of The Pine Cone is the result of the efforts of Sunset and High School students. Editor is Kathie von Meier. Student reporters are: Harvya Hodges, Margot Campbell, Janet Richey, Dan Holmes, Nancy Page, Eric Otto and Bill Marquardt. Needle Editors are: Christine Malvido, Sherrie Henderson, Laurel Hildebrand, Patsy Pierce, Janice Harney and Marj Glennon.

The special articles from Sunset and High School are signed by the writers. All material, except the advertising copy, is the work of the students.

As usual, we are sorry to see this week come to an end. It is fun having these young people flood the office like a tide; astonishing to see how energetically and efficiently they work.

We know you will like this 19th annual school issue of The Pine Cone. It is one of the best the students have produced.

—Cliff and Wilma Cook.

WINNERS IN CONSERVATION CONTEST

Winners of the Pine Cone Audubon Society Conservation Prizes are to be announced in an assembly at the high school today. They are: Above the winning group from the biology class presenting Conservation of Wildlife: Nancy McGill, Niels Reimers, Carol Petty, Ann Thoeni, Alys Knight. Right: winners in the Eighth Grade Science Class: Mary Alice Graves, Carole Byers, David Smith. The program of conservation in the science classes covered a period of approximately three weeks and included the work of 110 students. A committee composed of students and faculty reviewed the work and designated the winners. The prizes will be presented to the students by Miss Enid A. Larson, science teacher.

H. S. Delegates To Girls'-Boys' State

Janice Hatton and Bill Albee have been named this year's official delegates to Girls' and Boys' State, it was announced today by Dorothy Wright and Harlan Reburn, high school vice-principals. Both students, who are now juniors at CHS, were chosen by an administrative and advisory committee on a basis of scholarship, leadership, and moral character. Boys' State and Girls' State are organizations which strive to prepare young people for future citizenship by providing them with a practical understanding of the functions of our democracy. Ideas on democratic leadership will be brought back by the delegates, who will then be able to contribute to next year's student government a more highly developed sense of responsibility and an intelligent interest in democratic procedure.

Poll Of Citizens Shows Approval Of Library Bonds

A special municipal election will be held May 20, 1949 for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters a proposition for certain municipal improvements; namely an addition to the Ralph Chandler Harrison Memorial Library building.

In connection with this the Carmel High School student reporters have endeavored to acquire the opinions of several Carmel residents on this subject. The reporters have tried to reach as many people as possible, so that the opinions expressed would represent a cross-section of the views on this important issue.

THANKS

On behalf of the students who have been fortunate in being able to contribute to this issue of The Pine Cone I want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cook and their staffs.

We are thankful for the patience they have shown and the help they have given us in our venture in applied journalism.

We hope you like this school issue and we also hope that it lives up to the regular standard of this paper.

Your Student Editor,
Kathie von Meier.

Talbert Josselyn, noted short story writer and Carmel "old timer," states: "I am for it. I feel that the library is one of Carmel's 'happy' institutions. We old-timers connect it with the Forest Theater and the arts and crafts."

Mrs. Earl G. Glennon, president of the Soroptomist Club, says: "I am always in favor of enlarging the facilities of such a worthwhile institution as the library."

Arne Halle, vice-president of the Bank of Carmel, says: "I am in favor of it. It is a necessary addition. The growth of the community warrants it."

Cliff Cook, publisher of The Pine Cone, states: "It is long overdue. I hope everybody who is for it turns out to vote, because those who are against it will."

Willard Whitney, long time Carmel business man says: "I haven't thought much about it, but I think that it is a good idea."

Dorothy Wright, local educator states: "I am back of it 100 per cent, both as a property owner and as an educator. I believe it should be passed."

Maxine Albro, artist, says that although taxes are far too high already, she feels there is certainly a great need for an addition.

Gertrude Rendtorff, dean of girls at Monterey High School and long time Carmel resident, says: "There is nothing I can say except that I am heartily in favor of it."

Dr. Erik Berne, psychiatrist, believes, "The more wings on our library, the better."

Dr. Horace Dormody: "It's a good thing."

Within the next few weeks other residents may receive a call from the Leaders Club of Carmel High School urging all qualified voters to get out and record their vote.

City Trucks Will Call For Trash In Clean Up Week

By Dan Holmes

The annual spring clean up campaign will begin May 10 under the direction of Robert Leidig, fire marshal.

Marshal Leidig will inspect all places of business some time during the week, for any signs of fire hazards.

If the citizens will co-operate the city trucks will pick up refuse (Continued on Page Four)

The Unchangeable Schedule Of Our Local Train

(Julienne has lived much of her life in France, which furnishes the background for this sketch.)

By JULIENNE POULICHET, High School

Our local train was more than a single train; it was more than one of the thousand of trains. It was a part of our life. No famous name was written on its sides, neither were there any initials of a great company; nothing in its appearance gave a feeling of power. A first glance at it, and there was just a local train of humble birth. One black locomotive followed by one, two, three covered wagons for travelers with the last one reserved for miscellaneous transportation, and that was all. It belonged to us all and held its place of great importance in our every day life.

Day after day it was the same old routine. In spring, when everything was silent, the wind brought to our ears the faint puff-puff of its climb over the hills. What was it in the summer time? Then its white clouds of smoke told the harvesters, working in the field it was nine o'clock, time for dinner. They ceased work and peacefully trudged their way home while the train was passing and the sun was setting. It never stopped (Continued on Page Four)

Julienne Poulighet Saw Signal Fire Of French Guerillas

By Hilary Carnson, High School

Julienne Poulighet is one of Carmel High School's most interesting students, and I would like to introduce her to you. She came to CHS nearly two years ago from France and is now a member of this year's senior class. Julienne was born in San Francisco, but when she was five she went to France and remained there until the end of the war. Her mother (Continued on Page Four)

GONZALES SPARTANS STILL ON WIN STREAK

Last Friday saw the Gonzales Spartans continue their win streak at the expense of the Carmel Padres. Perry Newton, second string pitcher for the Spartans, held the hapless Padres hitless until the final inning. In the final inning Dick Weer got a scratch hit, Vandervort forced Weer at second and then Niels Reimers really leaned into one of Newton's pitches for a clean double, scoring Vandervort for the lone Carmel run.

The Spartans showed that they meant business from the beginning when they scored one run on two hits in the first inning. They went scoreless in the second, third and fourth innings, but got to Gene's pitches in the fifth to score two more runs on two hits. They added one more run in the sixth on a couple of walks and an error to make the final score 4-1.

The win and loss column for the Padres now shows two wins and three losses. The Padres take on the improved Pacific Grove Breakers on the Breaker diamond this afternoon at 3:45.

CARMEL PLACES 13 CINDER-MEN IN CCAL TRIALS

By placing men in every event except the broad jump and the shot put, Carmel's track team made a very presentable showing at the CCAL track trial at Watsonville Tuesday night.

Each lad who placed in this meet will compete in the finals for the league at Hollister tomorrow afternoon. From this event, the winners will be qualified to race in the Northern California Section track meet at Berkeley.

Of the Carmel boys who placed in the Watsonville trials, 11 are on the varsity track team and two are lightweight runners.

Both Tommy Handley and Dick Gargiulo placed in two events. Tommy's events were the 120 yard high hurdles and the high jump, where two other Carmel athletes, Keith McKenzie and Erik Short, also placed. Meanwhile, Dick, Carmel's star sprinter, captured his heat in the 100 yard dash and placed in the 220 yard dash.

Another double winner was Jack Belangee who placed in the discus throw and the 440 yard run. In the other runs, Carmel placed Dick Weer in the 880 and Hooky DeAmaral and Dennis Narvaez in the mile run.

Steve Whitaker and Bernie Adams captured places in the pole vault, while Legare McNeill took a place in his specialty, the 180 yard low hurdles.

In the lightweight division, Alan Reyburn and Gerry Robison placed in the 660 and 1320 runs. A serious loss to the team was Ed Goodrick, highest scorer for the Carmel lightweights, who could not compete in the trials because of measles.

ABALONE LEAGUE

Under Sunday's blue sky in Abalone League play the Tigers belted the Giants 12-7 to move up to a tie for first place.

Louie Sanders with four hits came through with his usual batting performance, giving the added punch to the game.

In the second game the Shamrocks won their first league match when they defeated the Pilots, 11-6. Jack Giles and Patsy Ricketts led the hitting for their Irish teammates.

BOYS' AFTER SCHOOL SPORTS

Boy's after school sports have been coming along very good. We started with football. We only had a couple of accidents, but we got right back up and started to play again. The boys learned very much about it that they didn't know at first.

Of all the other sports, basketball is a favorite. The boys played hard all the time so they could win their Block S. Many girls and boys came to see them play. Sometimes there were a few arguments, but it all turned out okay. The boys were almost always good sports. When one team lost a game they didn't like it, but they were good sports about it.

Baseball is here now and the boys like it very much. There are good games all the time. Almost everyone likes baseball, but it is a dangerous game sometimes. The boys are always playing it. They are learning very much about it.

Track will be here in a little while. And I'm sure that it will turn out very nicely because the boys like it.—Jimmy Hallett, 6th grade.

But As You Know A Centipede Only Has Legs

By Julie Work, 6th grade

One day a few weeks ago two centipedes were walking home from the store. One's name was Per Cent, standing for one hundred per cent. The other's name was Footsie, standing for "pede," which means feet. Per Cent had the nickname of Purr, because Purr had a little motor underneath himself that would help his legs move, and his one hundred legs wouldn't get tired.

Purr and Footsie had never met. But on this day how could they help but meet, because they were going in opposite directions.

When they did meet Footsie found out that Purr was in the mining business. He mined metal. After that he would polish the metal and put it in a package and would send it to the manager to check. Purr found out that Footsie was a cashier in the grocery industry. She worked at a machine called the cash register. She would sell masses of groceries every day. Sometimes it was hard to manage that many customers.

After a little while Purr asked Footsie to marry him. Footsie accepted on one condition, that Purr fix all the broken things in the house, including the washing machine.

When Footsie and Purr got home, Purr started to fix the washing machine. It needed another screw. So Purr tried to put it in. But as you know a centipede only has legs, and can't put a screw in. But Purr is still trying, because of Footsie.

CRICKET CLUB

The Del Monte Cricket Club will open its 1949 season on Sunday, May 1, with a friendly match against the San Francisco Peninsula Cricket Club at Monterey High School, starting at 1 p. m. The team was chosen at the regular practice at Carmel High Thursday too late to be reported.

My mother and I took a sunbath on the back porch.—Barbara Petty, kindergarten.

RAIN

Showers of dashing rain splashing on the window pane. As I look out from inside, watching the rain on the street so wide.

Big umbrellas looking as though they were floating through the air. They must like the rain. Better than days that are fair.

—Penny Bunn, 4th grade.

Judge Frowns On Students Strewing Beach With Cans

Three University of California students were arrested last Tuesday morning for violation of ordinance code, section 88, scattering of garbage (in this case, beer cans.) The boys were in the later stage of an all night beach party when Officers Woffard Dufur and Andrew Del Monte entered upon the scene.

Judge George P. Ross did not fine the boys but gave them an instructive lesson in the care and maintenance of city property. He also told the boys to warn all other U. C. students that the next time any rowdiness was reported it will be met with a jail sentence.

The boys involved were George Puterbaugh, John Thourson, and Gareth Meinhold, all of Berkeley. Dan Holmes, high school.

Four One-Act Plays To Be Presented At Sunset On May 13

The drama classes of Carmel High School, sponsored by the Carmel Lions Club, are planning to present four one-act plays at Sunset Auditorium, Friday, May 13. The students have been working hard to give "that professional touch" to their productions and they have certainly succeeded. Proceeds will go to the radiant heat fund for the swimming pool.

The four plays presented will be a Chinese play, a mystery, a monodrama, and Russian play. These plays are all unusual. The Chinese in their plays use no props or scenery and the students will use this method, although it is rather difficult. The mystery, entitled Miracle at Blaise, takes place in France during the German occupation. The monodrama, with Didi Douglas portraying the sole character — a "movie" mother — is amusing and unusual. The Russian play, The Boor, has an unusual plot and a startling climax.

Be sure not to miss these plays because they are really worth your while, something that both young and old will enjoy. — Sally Dalton, high school.

I'm looking for a sea cucumber. Now that I know about them, I'm always on the watch. — Jon Konigshofer, 1st grade.

We went down to the beach and found a starfish. My father put it on the wall at home. — Carolyn Burde, 1st grade.

SCULPTOR DIES

Word has been received here of the death of Franciscana Terebova, Bolinas artist and frequent visitor to Carmel. She was a widely known sculptor, specializing in carvings and driftwood figures. She died from a fractured skull, apparently falling after she stepped from a bus near Mill Valley on Tuesday.

Stuart Mitchell's Movies Feature Of P. T. A. Meeting

The Carmel High School Parent Teachers Association observed Public Schools Week with a very special program Thursday in the high school cafeteria. A movie, in which almost every high school student appeared, was shown. This movie, taken by Superintendent Stuart Mitchell, covers daily school life, sports events, ski trips, and other special activities. Providing the musical background for this film were the high school band and orchestra, under the direction of John Farr.

Following this program refreshments were served by Mrs. Louise Bournes' homemaking classes. The parents were especially interested in the displays of student work and special projects which were held in several other rooms.

Special credit should be given the hostesses of the evening who were Mrs. Frank Lloyd, Mrs. Howard Clark, Mrs. Gerald Page, Mrs. Howard Timbers, Mrs. George Fortier, Mrs. Ben Updike, and Mrs. Carol McKenny. The program chairman was Mrs. Julian von Meier. — Laurel Hildebrand.

Policeman Polite, Does Not Always Make An Arrest

By Jeanne Fratessa, 6th grade

Beanie and Beatrice were two girls belonging to the Don't Land Up in the Hospital Club. The purpose of this club was to prevent accidents. Beanie and Beatrice imagined how limp and pale a person would be after an accident on the road. A person might be crippled for life because they meant to stay on the sidewalk but jaywalked because there wasn't a policeman around. Then they imagined a patient being carried to the modern hospital where their friends waited in sorrow and grief.

After every accident the police investigate the scene of the wreck and try to figure out the cause of the crash. In trying to solve the puzzle the policeman is polite and does not always make an arrest.

Mary Louise And Sali Will Have Papal Audience

By Margot Campbell

I guess some people are just luckier than others. Just everybody can't take three months off to do nothing but visit European countries and see all the sights. Sali Dalton, a junior at Carmel High School, and her friend, Mary Louise Hunter, a junior at Mary Mount Convent, are going to do just that. They will leave for New York May 9, by train, and then board the Queen Elizabeth for Paris, England, Scotland, Ireland, Italy, France and Switzerland are some of the countries Sali and Mary Louise plan to visit on their travels.

When in Rome they are going to have a private audience with the Pope. The girls will have the privilege of this honor because of the notes of the many Catholic nuns they know.

Sali and Mary will spend a thrilling three months seeing what there is to see and educating themselves. They will make their return trip on the Queen Mary. When they land in New York they will spend a week seeing as much of New York and Washington as they can.

Sali came to Carmel High School last year when she was beginning her junior year. Five years of her childhood was spent traveling around the world with her sister and her mother.

Although Sali is very lucky to be able to further greatly her knowledge of the world by going to Europe, "one can't have one's cake and eat it too." Prior to leaving, Sali must pass her final exams before she can become a senior. This gives her a week before she will take them.

The chickenpox and measles are going around. I have already had chickenpox when I was little. — Katie Fry, 2nd grade.

at their homes. In the past though, the citizens have been late in having their debris out in time for the trucks to haul it away. In recent campaigns people have called for trucks to come by a week or even a month after the close of Fire Prevention Week.

Mr. Leidig plans an extensive campaign, with the help of the Boy Scouts and other prominent organizations. Literature will not only be passed out by the Boy Scouts, but also will be circulated by the school children. These pamphlets and posters are important to you and everyone in your family. Take heed!

Marshal Leidig stresses the point that proper clean-up and fire prevention not only fight the fearful menace of fire, but beautify the city and even improve health standards.

In his 34 years as a public servant, 25 years chief of the Carmel Fire Department, and nine years as Fire Marshal, Mr. Leidig has taken an active part in the annual spring clean-up campaign. With your help and complete support he can make this campaign of 1949 the most thorough and beneficial of all.

literacy and education. Mr. Mitchell also stressed that in this democracy our survival depends upon an educated electorate.

From a taxfighter's point of view an appropriation of this sort would seem dangerous, indeed. But, the National Education Association News states in explaining its support of this measure, "The proposals for federal aid to education are but pennies among piles of dollars now being appropriated for other purposes." The NEA News also states that though "every state pays; every state benefits, both directly and indirectly."

The money for this project would come from the federal treasury and the funds would be paid without any special tax or reference to where the taxes were collected. This aid would be allotted "in terms of measures of real need," states the bill.

Raymond Rubicam, of the Committee for Economic Development writes, "The crisis in education is a crisis for the nation."

Not only educators, but businessmen and statesmen are taking up the cry for this sorely needed aid. Even two years ago, Thomas J. Watson, president, International Business Machines Corporation, told a conference, "Money spent on education is the best investment our taxpayers can make."—Kathie von Meier, high school.

Our American Way of Life

What is our American way of life? It is freedom, hope, and liberty. It means a lot to me. I will fight for it always. We have a hard job ahead of us because we want liberty. Many years ago we did not have it, but we have it now.—Terrie Thiele, 4th grade.

Accidents Can Happen

If everyone followed traffic rules think how many accidents could be avoided. Every day thousands of people get crippled or maybe even die from foolish law-breakers. Seeing a car in a wreck or even hearing the crash is enough to make any one go home pale or even make you faint.

A policeman arrests you for your own good. The police make laws that save many a person from cruel death if they are obeyed.

A patient at a hospital that goes home limp with no life in him brings grief to lots of people including the person that meant to make a right hand turn and instead went left.

It's not only the people in cars had returned to the United States just before the outbreak of the war, so Julienne stayed with relatives. She attended school in the village near the farm where she lived. There were, of course, Germans in the village, and the local guerrillas were active after night fall. Julienne tells of how the guerrillas would light bonfires outside the village so that allied planes could drop vital supplies to the resistance forces.

When the war was finally over, Julienne was able to come back to the States, and came to Carmel. Julienne like Carmel very much, and says that the coastal scenery reminds her of Brittany. After graduating in June, Julienne hopes to go to a nursing school in San Francisco. Julienne was handicapped when she first came here because she had forgotten how to speak English, but now she has overcome that handicap, and is able to converse as readily as anyone. If you saw the senior class production of Jane Eyre you will remember Julienne as the little French girl, Adele.

P-TA DANCE NEWS

The Carmel Parent-Teachers Association has been assured of the services of Martin Artellan and his trio for the big dance to be given on May 7. The band plays all kinds of dance numbers, from folk tunes to rumbas, and they love to have requests.

Arthur Hull of Sunset School has promised to serve as Master of Ceremonies, and Donna Hasty will do a skit during intermission.

The dance will be held at Carmel High School cafeteria and will begin at 8:30 p. m.

that don't obey rules, it's also pedestrians. It does not puzzle me that there are so many accidents when people disobey laws.

Here are a few of the rules that most of the time get broken—crossing the street at the end of the block, driving slow, stopping at stop signs, watching for little children that are apt to run in the street after a ball, and parking your car where you are supposed to.

It's really too bad that people learn to obey traffic rules the hard way or by someone else's accident. —Cynthia, Blum, 6th grade.

The Unchangeable Train Schedule

ped, even during the cold winter months one could see our local train moving in the snow country as a vivid black ribbon.

It served two towns of little importance between which, on a distance of about 50 miles, were scattered a few villages, with their stations of bluish-gray roofs.

During week days the passengers were few, only some businessmen or ladies of the cities stepped out in the chilly morning, wrapping themselves in warm fur coats, while an impatient horse-carriage waited to carry them farther on.

But Saturday was different: for Saturday was market day. As soon as the sun was rising and warming the valley where the last cloud of fog was disappearing, groups of women climbed the hill toward the station; old women in their severely neat costumes, young girls, fresh and clean with their starched white caps and embroidered aprons. Then the local train announced itself by a strident whistling which was lost in the tumultuous crowd. Was there somebody missing? The train waited, no one was in a hurry—perhaps that gentleman in the corner has some appointment? He seems to look anxiously at his watch. He is not of the country, for no one in Brittany is ever in a hurry—perhaps his neighbors hold too closely their baskets from which a bewildered duck or chicken head

Fourth And Sixth Grades Give Thought To An Important Subject

Conservation means to use only what you need and to save animals, timber, water, soil, and plants. To save animals, you hunt carefully and at the right time. To save timber, you don't use fire carelessly. In saving plants, if you pick them, don't throw them away.

A few days ago Shirley DeAmara came to our room to tell about Conservation Week. She told us about how flowers grow and if we did not have them our world would not be pretty. When in the woods, you should not pick the flowers. She showed us a flower called a shooting star.

She also showed us a poster of a bear praying not to have any more forest fires. We talked about how to prevent fires.

Nancy Lou Karnshaw.

We saw a movie about Conservation. It showed how fires get started. They get started by matches that have not been put out. Leaves get to burning and then a forest fire is started. The thing that helps to put out the fire is rain, and when you want rain, it never comes.—Graves Cox.

During Conservation Week we saw three films. They showed us about forest fires, and something about saving deer. The forest ranger keeps the forest safe from all the kinds of danger there might be in the forest.—Dick Ricketson.

Conservation means to use only what you need and to save animals, timber, water, soil, and plants. To save animals, you hunt carefully and at the right time. To save timber, you don't use fire carelessly. In saving plants, if you pick them, don't throw them away immediately or pick too many.

—Tweed Champe.

The Forest Ranger is a film about conservation. I liked it very much. It tells about the duty of a ranger and how he fights forest fires started by some careless person. Sometimes a fire fighter jumps from a plane with a parachute. They have a machine which tells if there is any danger of a forest fire. If there is, they have a man go up in the look-out tower with binoculars to see if there is a fire.

A ranger must be a detective because some hunters kill in the wrong season. His job is also to help people have fun and see that they do not get hurt. If someone is swimming wrong, he shows them how to do it right.—Anne Bodilly.

CONSERVATION IN THE SIXTH GRADE

Our class is studying much conservation. We have learned that conservation in the world is very important, possibly second only to world peace.

Early this term our class visited the Pacific Grove Museum. We were interested chiefly in the many birds found there. We are planning another trip soon. The object of interest of this trip will be birds and marine life.

Our class has gone on four field trips. On these trips we study animals, clouds, plants, and anything else of interest. We are planning to go on one a week from now.

We also have a Junior Audubon Club. Part of our class, Mr. Rogers' class, and Mrs. Jordan's class belong to it.

We had a tree-planting ceremony during Conservation Week. We planted a beautiful cork oak which the California State Division of Forestry gave us. A poem and the Conservation Pledge were given by members of the club. Mr. Blee and the president of the club gave talks. Members of the Audubon Club and all of Mr. Blee's class attended the ceremony.

One day during Conservation Week two men, one from the California Division of Forestry, and the other from the United States Division of Forestry, brought two movies for us to see. Later this term Mr. Blee intends to get some kodachrome slides for us.

There are a series of lectures and movies which the members of the Senior Audubon Clubs from all over the United States give. Many of the members attend these.

Conservation is a very interesting and important subject and I am glad, as is the rest of the class, that we are studying about it.—Lynn McMath, 6th grade.

My mommy made me a new sweater. It doesn't have any sleeves.—Tom Sipes, kindergarten.

THE KING AND THE TAILOR

Once upon a time, long ago in a city of far away, lived a tailor. The king of the city had a niece and a nephew who had been carried away as slaves when the city was attacked. It was a terrible thing for the royal king who was shocked. He tried to be calm and dismiss it from his mind, but could not arise to the occasion. He agreed to give an award to the person who would rescue his relations.

Now the earnest tailor decided to do a good deed, so the king would notice him and approve of him.

One dark night he limped to the tower with much nerve. He rescued the niece and the nephew with cannons sending out bullets on all sides.

When the king learned of the brave act he gave the little tailor

We went camping up in the mountains to hunt mountain quail. My father walked 20 miles and he caught 20 quail. We camped for two weeks. Then we went home. We had quail for three weeks.—Timmy Smith, 2nd grade.

a title.
The gloomy palace was gay again and the little tailor married the king's niece and they lived happily ever after.—Diane Thorne, 6th grade.

How We Licked The Parking Problem

For a while it looked like we'd have to put up parking meters. Folks working in town—including some of the store owners—were taking up all of the space along Main Street.

Farmers coming in to shop never found a place to park, and sometimes had to lug stuff a half mile or so. Some started to do their buying in other towns. Finally, store owners and farmers had a get-together—with the result that the empty field near the depot was fixed up for all-day parkers.

Now farmers get their shopping done comfortably, and the merchants have a better place to park than they had before. Just took a little friendly co-operation to make everybody happy.

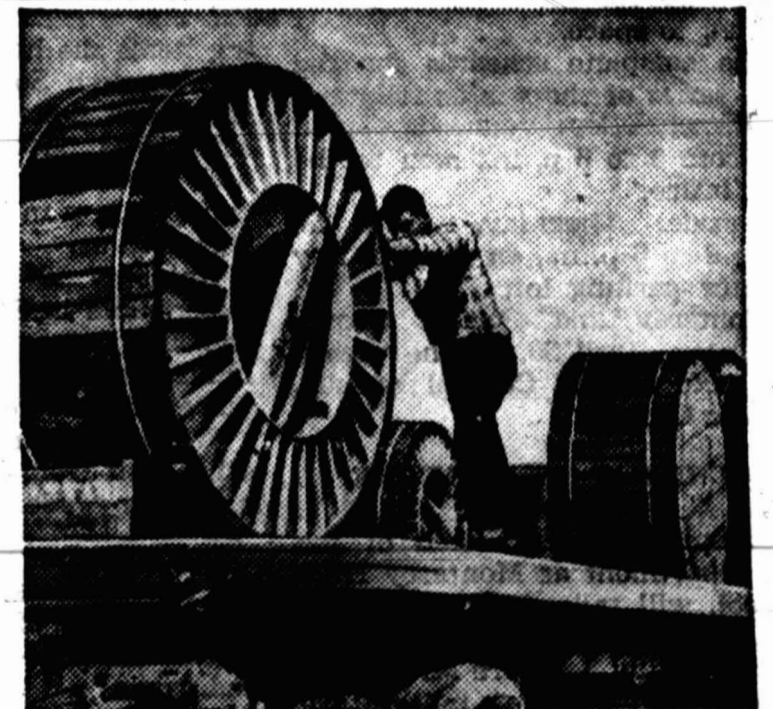

From where I sit, most differences can be ironed out by just talking things over—maybe with a cup of coffee or glass of beer—and seeing the other person's side of it. Next time you have a problem or a little difference to settle, why not try just that?

HOW MANY COAST JOBS WERE BORN

Pacific Telephone's construction program has made work for countless thousands and added to the West's postwar prosperity

1. When you see telephone cable on its way to work, you're watching the West benefit in two important ways. It means new voice highways for the West . . . more telephones . . . better service. It also means jobs and paychecks for the men who make the cable, those who install it and, later on, those who maintain it. And putting in new cable is just a small part of our building program.

2. Hundreds of new buildings mean work for carpenters, bricklayers—and work for those who provide the materials. They mean future jobs for telephone people. Since the war, we've put half a billion dollars to work in new construction. Much of it has found its way in ever-widening circles into the economy of practically every city and town in the West.

3. More business for the baker, the druggist, the clothier—telephone construction has given the West a big postwar lift. There's no way, of course, to trace all the jobs created by just one mile of cable . . . or one building. But it would probably be hard to find a family whose income has not benefited, in some way, from the money we've spent to provide more service.

4. It all adds up—this tremendous building program—to a better West for all of us and better telephone service. You can help yourself to the best possible service, too. Such things as making sure of the right number before you call and giving the called party plenty of time to answer help make your telephone a better servant.

Dollar Dog Shots Provided By Army, Co. Health Office

All owners of dogs and cats in the Monterey Bay area will have an opportunity to provide their pets with rabies vaccinations at cost in the next few days.

In Carmel the inoculations will begin on Friday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. in a tent set up in the vicinity of Ocean and Junipero. These shots are sponsored by the Monterey County Health Association, with the co-operation of the Army.

The first treatment will consist of three shots. Immunity can be retained by having the pet inoculated once every year thereafter.

The cost of the treatment is $1.00 per pet. Jack McCoy, manager of Jezebel's Pet Shop, has consented to furnish transportation to and from the veterinary post free of charge.

If you would care for this service and have no other means of transporting your pet, call Carmel 725-W. Mr. McCoy would appreciate it very much if you would give him a few hours notice before you wish to have your pet picked up, for his kennel truck is limited to space.

The complete schedule for the first series of shots is as follows:

Carmel Valley: Wednesday, April 27, from 3 to 6 p. m., next to the post office.

Seaside: Thursday, April 28, from 3 to 6 p. m., on the Del Rey theater parking lot.

Monterey and Pacific Grove: Saturday, April 30, on the vacant lot next to 120 Central avenue, Pacific Grove.

CURRENT LITERATURE GROUP

Freeman Sargent, head of the art department at Monterey High School, will talk about his theatrical experiences at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, May 3, before Mrs. Glenn Clairmonte's current literature group in room 11, Sunset School. He is a former member of the Wayfarers of San Francisco. His experience includes producing, acting, directing, radio announcing and marionette theater; he is currently active in the First Theater. The public is invited to attend the meeting which is under the auspices of the Carmel Adult School.

I saw the Fountain of Youth one day. I had my picture taken in it. I like it. I drank some water. I saw some swans. I saw a river, too. I saw one mill wheel. Then I went home.—Sandra Heiden, 2nd grade.

JUNIOR RED CROSS AND WELFARE ACTIVITIES

Our committee has been very busy this term. Our clothing drive was very successful. We collected 1,398 pounds of clothing. The clothing was sent to Save the Children Federation.

We had a drive to send seeds to Europe. We sent two orders. These were sent through CARE.

The two sixth grade classes made letter albums to send to foreign countries. The one Mr. Rogers' class made was sent to one of the South American countries. The one Mr. Blee's class made went to Sweden. These were sent through the Junior Red Cross. Our Junior Red Cross committee is making a booklet to go to a school in Italy. We are also making afghan squares, scrap books and tray favors.

We plan to have a funny book drive before school closes. These go to the Gray Ladies who take them to the hospital at Fort Ord.—Tehani Cheatham, chairman of Junior Red Cross and Welfare.

A TALK ON SOUTH AMERICA

On March 31, Mrs. Crawford, the third grade teacher at Sunset, came into Mr. Rogers' sixth grade and gave us a talk on South America. She brought in many interesting items she had collected on her trip through South America. She showed us dolls, silver ornaments, skins, and photographs. She told and showed us very many interesting things in the little time she was with us.

Not only did she tell us of her experiences in South America but she also helped us with our pronunciations of South American places and names.

We are looking forward to another visit from her.—Craig Chapman, 6th grade.

In our room we have a bank. We have a pet store, a food store, a dairy, and a dime store. We have a show, too.—Douglas Osmont, 2nd grade.

Only six more weeks till graduation, so senior class activities are in the spotlight now. Seniors interested in attending Hartnell College next year have been invited to a visiting day scheduled today on the college campus. Tours of the various departments will be included, and entertainment will be provided for the visiting students. Those interested in music may sit in on the Hartnell band rehearsal and afterwards may participate in a band concert during the noon hour. Other events include a baseball game, presentation of the first act of the current drama class play for interested seniors, and a dance in the gymnasium. The day will be climaxed by the Hartnell College annual carnival and dance in the evening, to which all visitors are invited. CHS students who will be on the Hartnell campus for the visiting day are Louise Harber, Joyce Bannerman, Jackie Briggs, Ed Seifert, Art Harber, and Bob Burgess.

Graduation week activities and preparations were discussed in a meeting of the senior class held early this week. It was announced that collection of cap and gown money has been delegated to Joyce Bannerman, Ardith Morrisseau, and Herb Riebe. Seniors were also told that the long-awaited graduation announcements and cards have arrived, and will be ready for distribution next week. A class vote between having a senior breakfast or a barbecue came out in favor of the latter plan. The barbecue is scheduled for the Carmel Valley Inn on an afternoon shortly before graduation day. Other events on the senior class' crowded calendar were mentioned, including the senior assembly, graduation rehearsals, and the Senior Ball. The ball is to be held in the school library on the night of Saturday, May 14, but further plans are as yet quite indefinite.

Members of the planning committee for the dance are Benita Updike, chairman; Louise Harber, Dan Holmes, Janet Richey, and Pat Timbers.

Reports from the coast counties music festival in Hollister last Saturday indicate that Carmel was well represented in its groups, with the choir being outstanding. The 75 students who participated in the all-day conference gained much valuable musical experience as well as enjoying meeting many students from over ten different high schools.

Last-minute rushing to meet final deadlines has had most of the yearbook staff in a whirl all of this week. All picture taking is over, but the last stages of making the dummy are proving the most complicated. This year's book is a larger edition than those of previous years, so more pictures and more space for articles will make it a really outstanding publication.

The first public presentation of "CHS in Revue" occurred Tuesday night when the color film taken by Superintendent Mitchell was shown to Lions Club members and their ladies after a dinner meeting in the high school cafeteria. Orchestral accompaniment to the film was supplemented by piano solos from June Kocher, Biz Carr, and Ann Thoeni. PTA members Thursday night enjoyed the same program at their last regular meeting of the year.

The official opening of the new Terrace Room takes place tonight as the CHS Leaders' Club presents its May Day dance in the cafeteria. A May pole with crepe paper streamers and lots of gay flowers will make up the decorations. Laurel Hildebrand is in charge of posters for the affair; Pat Timbers, bulletin notices; Benita Updike, record, and Jennefer Lloyd, refreshments. All club members will work on decorations for the May Day dance, which is to feature for the first time dancing on the terrace outside of the cafeteria.

New students to Carmel High next year and in years to come will quickly get into the swing of things when they are presented with a copy of the CHS handbook being put out by the Leaders' Club. Now in the final stages of being compiled, the book will be a summary of all regular campus activities, a description of each organization, an outline of rules and regulations for student behavior, and a copy of the Carmel High School Student Body constitution.

The mixed badminton tourney is progressing quite rapidly, with noontime and after-school matches drawing many spectators. The first round is nearly over, and several of the teams have gone on to third and fourth round play. Ahead so far in the tournament are Leslie Bracisco and Pat Timbers, Howard DeAmaral and Jennefer Lloyd, Keith McKenzie and Harvya Hodges, and Jim Hare and Edelen Cory.

Finals in the girls' GAA sponsored ping pong singles tournament are over and Edelen Cory emerged the victor when she defeated Patsy Pierce, defending champion. Matches were played off in the same fashion as a tennis tournament, with GAA points being awarded accordingly. Others who progressed to the quarter final stages of competition were Janice Hatton and Paula Roloff.

Student body plans for coming events include a big barn dance to be held in the gym next Friday night. Folk dancing and ball room dancing will be featured at this gala affair, which is under the direction of Patsy Canoles, commissioner of social affairs for the student body.

THE WIRE RECORDER

Mrs. Crawford brought the wire recorder to our room so we could hear a radio program. The little thin wire is so delicate it records like a phonograph record. You can play it over and over or you can erase it forever by putting other sound on it. It is like magic. I love to hear it but I love to watch it most of all.—Larry Donaldson, 3rd grade.

In the event that said Municipal Improvement Bonds shall be issued and sold, then said Council at the time of fixing the general tax levy and in the manner for such general tax levy provided shall levy and collect annually, until such bonds are paid (or until there shall be a sum in the treasury of said city set apart for that purpose, sufficient to meet all sums coming due for principal and interest on said bonds) a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds, and also such part of the principal thereof as shall become due before the proceeds of a tax levy at the time for making the next general tax levy can be made available for the payment of such principal. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for municipal purposes, and shall be collected at the time and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are collected, and be used for no other purpose than the payment of said bonds and accruing interest."

SECTION 2. This ordinance being an ordinance calling and providing for an election shall, pursuant to the laws of the State of California, take effect and be in force from and after its final passage and approval.

SAN FRANCISCO

My mamma, daddy, brother and I went to San Francisco. We went up the hill on the cable car. We went out to the beach and went on the roller coaster, whoops! whoops! In the zoo we saw the giraffes, but couldn't feed the elephants because the peanut man wasn't there. We saw three lion cubs. They played all over their mother. Their father roared. We saw the beautiful tigers all yellow and black and a funny animal that looked like a deer but wasn't. He had a long neck. There was another animal with a horn on his head. He sure looked funny. We had a good time. I can't wait to go again. — Robert Forbes, 3rd grade.

NARROW ESCAPE

My mother had a narrow escape. A friend of hers asked her to go out in the bay in his fishing boat. Luckily for her, she had something else planned. You will see what I mean by lucky when I tell you what happened. At 1 o'clock the fishing boat got caught in a big wave. It turned over and one man was drowned. The others were saved. I'm glad my mother was not on that boat! — Kay, McFail, 3rd grade.

SOCIAL STUDIES

This year almost everyone in our class likes social studies. Our first project was Latin America. Each person in the class had two topics. Each child had one country in South or Central America. The other topics we took were things about South and Central America, such as the banana industry, the coffee industry, and rubber. Other topics were music, dances, the Amazon River, the animals, and many others.

In social studies we also have arithmetic. We have learned about the population of cities and we have compared cities in South and Central America with cities in the United States.

We have also brought writing into social studies. Mr. Blee grades us on the writing of our papers.

One of the things that we like best is to speak Spanish. We have learned quite a few numbers, clothing, and simple words of that sort have been learned.

We have drawn pictures of our topics, too. Not everyone has drawn pictures.

The project that we are working on now is aviation. Mr. Rogers' class was working on aviation while we were studying Latin America. Mr. Rogers told us some topics in aviation to work on. We will have committees to work on the different things.

Almost everyone in the class seemed to like studying Latin America. I think we will like studying aviation, too. — Sally Spurr, 6th grade.

TRIP TO PINNACLES

One weekend our family went to the Pinnacles. We had a nice picnic of potato chips and egg and cheese sandwiches. Soon we went up into the caves. You would have to take a flashlight and rubbers. There are lots of waterfalls, so of the Pinnacles are about 40 miles south of Hollister. On the way we saw fields of wildflowers. — Laurel Martin, 3rd grade.

OUR SPANISH CLASS

Our class started studying Spanish last fall. We don't have a special time for Spanish, but we do have Spanish when we have time.

We have learned how to count to twenty, how to say some clothing, some colors, and some simple sentences. Our teacher has two beginning Spanish books. Sometimes he talks in Spanish and points to the thing he is talking about. We learn many words that way. In spelling sometimes he tells us how to say our spelling words in Spanish. We like it very much. — Karen Johnson, 6th grade.

All the time I bring in the logs to burn and then I jump into the bathtub and make a big splash. — Joey Foster, 1st grade.

and you'll see Roadmaster!

LITERALLY or figuratively it still holds true.

That great and gracious carriage swinging past you, flashing its four gleaming Ventiports as it goes, what's that but a ROADMASTER?

And that car you've got your sights set on—the big, roomy, lively, sweet-riding thrill-maker you mean to own "some day"—what's that but this gorgeous travel-mate you see on the roads right now?

You can even go beyond that.

Look ahead—and you'll see that Buick has already met the growing trend toward more for your money.

On the liveliness of its time-proved valve-in-head power plant—on the unequalled smoothness of Dynaflo Drive—on the level-going luxury of its matchless ride, ROADMASTER doffs its bonnet to no one.

Yet look around, check the prices (including what's in them!) and you'll find that this one costs less than you think, gives more than you expect.

As for delivery—just drop in and get the facts. With factory production increasing, you may well find it another reason for getting a firm order in right now.

BUICK alone has all these features

Silk-smooth DYNAFLOW DRIVE* • FULL-VIEW VISION from enlarged glass area

The class is sponsored and taught by Mr. Garvin personally and the training will include many of the latest types of problems similar to the ones used in recent state examinations.

Mr. Garvin will also advise the students on how to get started in the real estate profession, either part or full time; how to secure listings, make sales, etc.

Class will be held on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p. m., in the Woman's Club Building, located on Lincoln Avenue near the corner of West Gabilan street, Salinas and will be conducted for six weeks.

There will be a reasonable tuition fee, which can be paid in installments.

Prospective students are invited by Mr. Garvin to attend the "Opening Session" without charge or obligation.—Adv.

HOW TO WRITE A STORY

BY MARY MASUEN, HIGH SCHOOL

The sun is sinking slowly over the rim of the mountain. The figure of a boy is silhouetted against its fading brightness for a few seconds. The sun has disappeared and still he sits there. He hasn't moved from the spot in over an hour. Another hour passes and still he sits. The silence of the place seems to blend in with the still figure of the boy. From somewhere a call comes.

"Jimmy! Jimmy!"

Slowly the boy gets up and moves silently down the hillside toward a faint light in the distance. The boy is walking! Walking in a country, where no other boy walks; but rides, his pony or maybe just an old gray mare.

Yet from his walk you can see that he has ridden before. Why then is he walking? Think back. Make up a story to go with the miserable figure. Weave fancy into fact and weave a tale of misery out of it.

He is walking. He is silent by grieving for something. If it were a person he would have ridden his pony. He is walking. Ah, then he has lost his pony.

You get out your pencil and paper. After settling yourself into a comfortable position you begin to write. You write a story of misery, hate and torment.

You send the story to some magazine. Soon you get a check from the magazine.

Again you visit the place. This time you go to the house. You have a good feeling inside you. You're going to buy that boy a pony! An answer to your knock.

"Yehp, whut kin I do fer yew?"

"Does a boy live here?" you ask.

"Yehp, eight of 'em."

You're astounded. And your heart sinks.

"Do they all ride?"

"Yehp, all got ponies."

"Has Jimmy one?"

"Yehp, too lazy to ride tho."

"Lazy?"

"Yehp, stays up on the hill till after sundown so's he won't have to get in wood. Allus acts 'sif the chickens had took his bread."

You've been duped!!

LUCK

BY BILL ALBEE, JR., HIGH SCHOOL

Fifteen minutes had passed since I had left my parents to explore the possibilities of easy hiking through the river gorge. As I had never been through this country, every turn brought new excitement and surprises.

The imagination of a boy of eight has unlimited bounds, so when I rounded the bend in the bank of the river and saw a small fuzzy-looking black animal a few yards ahead, I stopped short. Quick thoughts flashed through my young head. Shall I run up and capture it? No! It could be a baby bear and its mother could be watching me from the bend and come and get me. Shall I blow my whistle and call Dad? No! I will show the animal where I am.

No sooner had these thoughts flashed through my brain than I turned on my heels and covered the distance that had taken so long before in seemingly few minutes. My hurried explanations had immediate results by having Dad produce a 30-30 rifle and seeing two pairs of flying heels instead of one.

Upon returning to the spot, my heart almost stopped. There was nothing in sight! I was relieved and disappointed, for I did not prefer a meeting with Mr. Bruin.

But was it a bear? That thought haunted me constantly until one day the same summer my father "brought home the bacon" for the muligan pot. It was then I realized that I had already had my first lucky experience with a porcupine!

BUTTERFLIES

*Down by the stream
Where the butterflies gleam
They look like gold
And all different colors.*

—WENDY BURNHAM, Second Grade.

SPRING

*Spring is here, the blossoms are out,
The little green grasses are starting to sprout,
The lovely flowers of the apple trees,
How sweet they are in the soft, spring breeze.
There come some boys,
With a basket of fishes
They'll make a dish
That's most delicious.*

—SUZANNE BESTOR, Fourth Grade.

I WONDER

*Under the ground,
Under the roots
Under the rocks,
Just what goes on?*

—JOHN SCOTT, Fourth Grade.

THE WIND

*The wind is strong, the wind is weak
The wind is majestic, the wind is meek
The wind is gentle as a posie
The wind is dangerous,
The wind is safe
The wind has broken many a vase
The wind is good, the wind is bad
The wind has many a fad
So here is where we say goodbye
To the wind.*

—JOHN THOMPSON, Fifth Grade.

NIGHT

*All through the long and weary day man has toiled, Pitting his strength against steel, watching his dreams shattered and spoiled.
No rest, only the sound of metal and smell of sweat;
But at the end of the day, nature, soothing and cool,
Spreads her ebony cloak of night over the tumultuous world,
Sprinkling her skirts with her celestial jewels.
But no man looks up in wonder at the stars,
No heart is made lighter by the miracle of the moon,
Man's only thought is with the labor of the day;
And as dawn creeps in, engulfing the stars,
Man begins another day in an earthly hell.
But nature will come again,
And perhaps then some man will notice the beauty of the night.*

—DEE SHARPE, High School.

SPRING

*The sun is shining
And you are climbing
An apple tree today.
Since Spring is here
And winter is gone,
Let's go out and play.*

—GAIL MCHARRY AND
SUSAN CASTAGNA, Fifth Grade.

ALL GUMMED UP

BY PATRICIA MERIVALE, HIGH SCHOOL

He was like a little boy with a bowl of stiffly beaten egg white; the boy would touch the shiny surface reverently at first; then, as the sheen was broken, he would crumble and crush it ecstatically between his fingers in an effort to squeeze its innermost secrets into his hand. Soon it would all be gone, and the boy would weep a little and wonder sadly why there was no more pretty stuff ~~with which to play~~. So it was with him; he took the love the world gave him, crumbled and crushed and tortured it, and then cursed God for leaving him alone.

He was known to the world as "the Gum King" and was reputed to make two and a half million dollars a year by selling various adhesive substances to his fellow citizens. He considered himself, because of a certain lack of business scruples, to be another Ivar Kreuger. He was not, however, either as wicked or as great.

He sold the story of his slightly messy rise to prosperity, entitled "How My Wives Gummed Me Up" to Digest of the Digests Magazine for a small—a very small—fortune. His third wife, of whom he was rather fond, read it, noted some of its more flavorful details and promptly sued for divorce. Only four of her thousands of words of testimony need be quoted here: "He is a brute."

The next day he went to his office, glanced swiftly at his accounts and, emulating his hero to the last, fired a bullet through his brain. He would have been disappointed to discover that, aside from an income tax evasion of a few hundred thousand dollars, his accounts were in perfect order.

HOPPITY, THE EASTER RABBIT

BY DENNIS WHITE, FIFTH GRADE

Hoppity was just a plain little bunny rabbit who wanted to be an Easter Bunny. He wanted to make little children happy on Easter. One day he told his mother why he was so unhappy, and she said, "Why son that is a job for a big jack-rabbit." This made the little bunny rabbit very angry. One day he ran away to prove that he could make little children happy, and he did, so he became the grandfather bunny of all the bunnies and the wisest.

A WILD ELEPHANT HUNT

BY DONALD MARTIN, SEVENTH GRADE

Crash! Crash! went the sticks of the natives who were driving a herd of wild elephants into a keddah. On and on they went, beating the brush and waving flaming torches. When the elephants reached the keddah, the leader, a big bull elephant, stopped. His reason for stopping was that he had had other experiences in keddahs. Just before the big bull could turn his herd around and go back, a native fell from the wall of the keddah screaming, "Aiiie." He fell directly in front of the big elephant and lay perfectly still until he was dragged away from his doom.

After the herd was inside of the stockade, two tame elephants followed by a man of seventy years, headed for the wild elephants. The old man slipped a deerskin noose around one of the leader's hind legs. The other end was attached to a tame elephant. Soon nooses were slipped on the other three legs and then the wild elephant was tied to trees where he struggled for many hours.

Once again, another big bull elephant was captured. Once again, beast was led from the jungle by man to perform his work in this world away from his playfield, the jungle.

Dorothy Dean Wed

At a quiet ceremony on Easter Sunday Dorothy Dean and David W. Stevens exchanged marriage vows at the home of Miss Dean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Dean. Dr. K. Fillmore Gray officiated and only members of the family attended the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Stevens operates a dancing studio in Monterey, and teaches dancing in Carmel also. Dave Stevens is a painting contractor on the Peninsula. His parents, who both reside in Monterey, are Mrs. R. J. Jacobson and George Stevens. The newlyweds will make their home in Pacific Grove.

Mrs. Hughes Entertains

Last week Mrs. A. C. Hughes gave an afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. J. W. Mathys and Mrs. S. B. Moore, recent arrivals in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathys are from Minneapolis and plan to visit here for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore of Salinas are building in the Carmel Woods and plan to live in Carmel permanently.

Assisting Mrs. Hughes at the tea were Mrs. Claude Faw, Mrs. Charles Dean, Mrs. Benjamin Johnson, all of Carmel, and Mrs. Paul Caswell of Salinas. Mrs. Hughes' sister-in-law, Mrs. H. E. Stafford of Berkeley, was also present to assist the hostess. Mrs. Hughes' twin daughters, Mrs. Joseph E. Carty of Santa Clara and Mrs. Clark Alsop of Salinas, received at the door.

Mrs. Mitchell Returns

Mrs. C. A. Mitchell has returned to Carmel after spending the winter and Spring in New York and Florida. She was in New York City for Thanksgiving and Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. E. MacD. Serren (Happy Mitchell) and then went on to Miami Beach in January. On her return trip to the coast, Mrs. Mitchell stopped to visit friends in Washington, D. C., and in Philadelphia.

U. C. Spring Vacation

Although the University of California had its vacation later than most schools, the Carmel students who are home for the week are enjoying a much better climate than some of their friends in rival institutions. Among the many Carmel High graduates vacationing in Carmel are:

Mary Gregory, sophomore English major and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Gregory. Mary is secretary of Pi Alpha Sigma, honorary advertising society.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Sapsis welcomed their son and daughter, Bill and Jackie. Jackie, who is a senior now, is an English major. Her brother is the undefeated champion of 145 pound boxers at U. C.

Bruce Hanger, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Bruce Hanger, is with his parents in Carmel Valley. He is a member of Phi Kappa Sigma and is majoring in Engineering.

Another Phi Kappa Sigma is Dick Larkey, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. Larkey, who is following in his father's footsteps and is busy with his medical books.

Jackie Work, recent graduate of Anna Head School, has chosen Journalism for her major. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Work.

Another pre-med student is Corky Nicholas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nicholas.

Scott Hendricks, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hendricks, is taking his major in secondary teaching.

George Moller, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Moller, is a major in Mechanical Engineering.

Lorene Townsend, Carmel High graduate who has recently moved to Berkeley, is down visiting friends for the holiday.

MacLennan House Guests

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. William MacLennan last week end at their home on Camino Real were Mrs. Borg, widow of the late Carl Oscar Borg, N. A., and the Misses Margaret and Katherine Burke, all of Santa Barbara. Margaret and Katherine Burke are the cousins of Oliver St. John Gogarty, noted wit and poet, who has been living in New York, but is now on the way to Ireland for the marriage of his daughter.

John Moffett's Party

Last Wednesday, John Moffett celebrated his ninth birthday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ruth I. Moffett, on Santa Rita Street. The guests arrived after school and played games until the refreshments, ice cream, cake, and candy, were served. The clever place cards for the guests were made from wild life conservation stamps, which were pasted on strips of cardboard.

John's guests were Mike Coleman, Billy Doolittle, Bob and Scott Forbes, John Grey, George Heath, Mark Hildebrand, Winston Sargent, Tom Wilson and Timmy O'Shea.

General Arnold Here

House guests last week of Colonel and Mrs. L. J. Stewart were Major General and Mrs. Archibald V. Arnold, who are currently on an extended trip throughout the country following General Arnold's retirement last June. Colonel Stewart was with General Arnold during the war when he commanded the Seventh Division in the Central Pacific, and the families are friends of long standing. The Arnolds have many other friends, both Army and civilian, here in Carmel and enjoyed renewing acquaintances.

Mrs. Arnold was a resident of Carmel during her husband's absence and is gratefully remembered for her efforts in helping to organize the Service Wives' Center and for her untiring work in the Red Cross.

General and Mrs. Arnold make their summer home at Cranberry Lake, New York, where they own 20 miles of lake front and four small islands. Over a period of years they have built a truly fabulous place there, but since it is accessible only by boat, and since the winters make it virtually uninhabitable, they are looking for a homesite in which to spend winters. Each of their four children has been presented with one of the islands in this lake which is near the Canadian border.

Treat Arnold, a Carmel High School graduate, will graduate from Williams this June. His brother, Archibald Junior, is stationed at Fort Sill and has his wife and two sons with him.

Joan, a former Smith student and Stanford graduate, is pursuing her interest in art by taking a trip to Europe. Peggy is married to Lieutenant George Ball (USN), and they will be on her island at Cranberry Lake this summer.

Mrs. White At Bakersfield

Mrs. Sarah E. White celebrated Easter at the beautiful church in Bakersfield her husband, the late Willis G. White, planned with the architect, John Galen Howard. Mr. White spent many years as pastor of that Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. White was entertained at the Hotel Padre, and she not only enjoyed the Easter service, but a wonderful reception given in her honor by many of her Bakersfield friends.

Auditions Postponed

Noel Sullivan, chairman of auditions for the Monterey County Symphony Association, has announced that the tryouts for concert soloists originally scheduled for May 1 have been postponed, the new date to be announced soon. Any professional or amateur instrumentalist or vocalist who is interested in appearing as guest soloist with the symphony next season is eligible for the tryouts and should get in touch with Mr. Sullivan. Services of a professional accompanist will be available to auditioners, who will appear before an audience composed only of members of the Symphony Association.

The final symphony concert of this season will be held on May 24 at Sunset Auditorium. The program will include the complete Symphony in D Minor by Cesar Franck, and operatic selections sung by Dan Lenoir Hosack, dramatic soprano.

Thrift Shop Show

Featuring a variety of skits, songs, and comic fashion review, the Community Center Auxiliary is presenting the Thrift Shop Scandals of 1949 at two performances. The first performance was held Thursday at the El Estero USO building in Monterey, and the evening show will be held Saturday, April 28, at the Mission Ranch in conjunction with a formal dance.

The money raised from these performances will go into the Community Center Building Fund. The auxiliary built and maintains the Community Center Nursery in New Monterey, to which they are hoping to add a Youth Center.

The auxiliary also maintains a Thrift Shop in Oak Grove, where used clothing and household articles are sold. The Thrift Shop is staffed by the active members of the auxiliary who contribute both their time and much of the merchandise for the shop.

Auxiliary members who will appear in both shows are Mrs. Ray Baugh, Mrs. Martin Mitchell, Mrs. Harry Raine, Mrs. Jack Dougherty, Mrs. Julian von Meier, Mrs. Chester Gillette, Mrs. A. H. Griffin, Mrs. Alice Fisher, Mrs. Murray Vout, Mrs. Wilma Campbell, Mrs. Egon Durr, Mrs. Sam Burwell, Mrs. Francis Hopper, Mrs. Robert Newby, Mrs. Harry Wingard, Mrs. Elgin Hurlbert, Mrs. Charles Bentley, Mrs. Homer Martine, and Miss Martha Brouhard. The show was written and directed by Mrs. Edward Campbell, and the stage managers are Mrs. Calvin Cope, Mrs. Alice Fisher, and Mrs. Henry Leppert. Tickets for the evening performance may be obtained from any member.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Childers report from Key West, Florida, that they had a wonderful time in the different places they stopped on their trip east, two of which are Carlsbad Caverns and New Orleans.

Azalea Expert Speaks

The garden section of the Carmel Woman's Club met last Monday to hear George H. Buhrman of Corralitos, an expert on the culture of azaleas, who donated one of his plants as a door prize. The ladies were all happy to see Flora Hartwell take the prize home for she has done a great deal for the Club. Elmer Bingham bought one of Mr. Buhrman's lovely varieties of azaleas as a donation for the Club House garden, and some of the members also exhibited blossoms from their own gardens.

Mr. Buhrman's talk was interesting to all, and of particular interest to those who wish to raise the plants. He gave many helpful tips and called attention to the fact that the azalea is a member of the same family as the honey-suckle. Both of these plants do well in this vicinity. It is possible to water azaleas from the top if this is done late in the evening, to avoid burning the leaves by sun-water action, since they take some nourishment from both the water and the air. Wood ashes are very harmful to azaleas, while rotten apples are good for them.

The question and answer period was unusually good, and Mr. Buhrman was exceptionally gracious about answering questions. A lovely bowl, donated by Mrs. E. M. Beecher, was taken home by Mrs. Sidney Dibble.

The charming ladies who made the tea that followed such a success were Mrs. W. C. Teacherson, chairman in charge of the tea, Mrs. Edith Bird and Mrs. Arthur Bissell Currie, who poured, and Mrs. Pierce Parsons, who did the flower arrangements. The other hostesses were Miss Charlotte Collins, Miss Molly Gibbons, Miss Helen Nichols and Mrs. Rita Johnson.

Girl Scout Camp

A meeting of the Carmel Girl Scout Council and Leaders was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lloyd R. Miller.

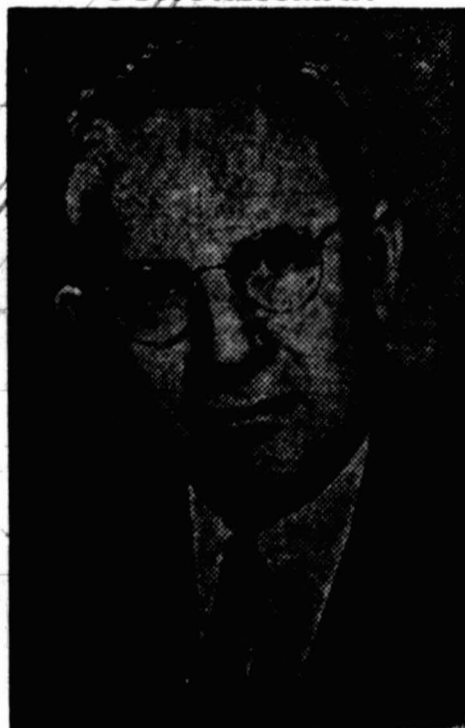

Mrs. Carl Berger, acting field director, reported on forthcoming training courses to be held for Brownie leaders. Anyone interested in going to camp may apply for, either the week of June 12 or the week of June 19. There will be an adequate staff to care for and instruct the girls. Day camp will be held July 11 to July 15.

Court of Awards will be held at the Carmel Girl Scout House on Thursday, May 26, at 7:00 p. m. Brownie fly-up ceremonies will be held May 6, at the Pine street auditorium of the Pacific Grove grammar school for the Brownies of the Monterey Peninsula area. Mrs. Karl Patnude will deliver the welcoming speech.

Mrs. George C. Bestor has resigned as treasurer, due to ill health, and her unexpired term will be filled by Mrs. Julian von Meier.

Those attending the council meeting were: Mesdames Kay Dunning, Julian von Meier, Victor Drilyea, Ralph W. Martineau, Harlan Reyburn, Boyd Beving, Carl Berger, Roderick Wilson, Lloyd Miller, E. R. Elliott, John J. Walsh, Ray Sutton, Orville Rogers, and Karl Patnude.

How your HOME FREEZER

PROVIDES BETTER MEALS
AT LOWER COST

Thousands of California homemakers are serving meals of more variety and better quality—all at a substantial saving through the thrifty use of their Home Freezers. And here is how you can do it, too.

More Variety You can freeze almost any kind of meat, fish, poultry, fruit and vegetables. Thus Spring Lamb and summer fruits and berries can vary the winter menus.

Better Quality You can buy fresh foods at their peak-of-season flavor and quality, and you preserve them at their best by quick freezing. More of vitamins, so necessary for good health, are retained.

More Convenience It is like having a market in your own home when you have a well-stocked Home Freezer. And how convenient that is! Here are foods for box lunch meals, from sandwiches to dessert, all ready to pack in a hurry. Or complete meals, cooked, ready for heating and eating including many kinds of baked foods. And there are party foods for special occasions or for unexpected company.

Greater Savings Buying in a larger quantity at low prices saves money. Leftovers frozen for later use eliminates waste and adds to meal variety. Many users say their home freezers have paid for themselves these three ways—through quantity bargain buying, elimination of food waste and fewer shopping trips.

Preparing food for home freezing is not difficult to do. Detailed instructions come with the Home Freezer you buy. Ask your electric dealer about a Home Freezer of adequate size to fit the needs of your family.

Almost 200 friends and well-wishers greeted the Reverend and Mrs. Charles Burrill at the home of Mrs. Grace C. Howden on Sunday afternoon at a tea given in their honor. Mrs. K. Fillmore Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burrill, and Dr. Gray, pastor of the Church of the Wayfarer, joined Mrs. Howden, Mrs. Walter Kreisler, and the guests of honor in the receiving line.

The tea table, set before the windows overlooking the garden, held a large spring bouquet of sweet peas and snap dragons flanked by buff candles; the reception room was decorated with two large bowls of white lilacs, iris, and gladioli, and in the entrance hall was a small bouquet of green and rust parrot tulips. Miss Margaret Sherman Lea, organist of the church, arranged the decorations.

Spring and Summer Fashions

Featuring cool summer and spring fashions from the Carmel Dress Shop this week's fashion show at the Pine Inn Garden Room presented styles which were all outstanding.

Opening the show was a sun-back dress, modeled by Mary Rodin, which showed that styles are now designed for the appearance of Old Man Sun.

A clever sports-action dress, very appropriate for golf, should please all Carmel and visiting golf enthusiasts, because it features an action back and a full length zipper closing. This dress was worn by Miss Kathleen Neal.

For a really cool summer outfit, the pale blue chambray dress modeled by Mrs. Milton Thompson is just the ticket. The cool appearance is accented by an eyelet embroidery trim.

Mary Rodin was outstanding in a crisp gray cotton dress with a soft organdy collar which forms a flattering frame for the face.

Next on the program was Kathleen Neal, who wore a cool blue-green striped dress. The front zipper closing, full skirt, and wide portrait neckline and collar all contribute to make this dress noticeable.

Pastel colors are in the fashion for summer, and Mrs. Enos Fouratt's charming strawberry pink tailored suit illustrates this fact. This dream of a suit was worn with dark chocolate brown accessories and a brown blouse.

Mrs. Fouratt later appeared in a beige light weight wool crepe coat dress with a clever double breasted effect and a frosty white pique collar.

For a versatile outfit, the simply styled dress modeled by Mrs. Milton Thompson will be what you want. The beautifully slim skirt, which is topped off with a long tunic trimmed in white eyelet embroidery, is particularly outstanding.

Blond Miss Ellen Leeds, who was the commentator, looked lovely herself in a pale blue chambray dress, trimmed in blue and white striped chambray. This cool casual dress showed a clever V-neckline with a double collar and self-covered buttons on the front closing.

All the well-matching accessories were from Kramer's Shop for Women, and the flowers worn by the models, also a table arrangement, were contributed by Mrs. Nielson of NB Flowers.

Fashions at next week's show will be from the Cinderella Shop.

Crafts Guild Meeting

At the Crafts Guild general meeting Tuesday the guest speaker, Fred McCargar, manager of the Monterey County Fair spoke on the arrangements concerning the fair, the showing of arts and crafts, and various crafts booths at the fair. Mr. McCargar also announced that the lovely spot in oak trees north of the Fine Arts building was approved for the arts and crafts in action.

Dudley Carter has been invited to show his huge redwood statues which are on exhibit at the Rio Carmelo Auto Courts.

To prepare for the fair a general meeting will be held at Sunset School on the second Friday of each month at 7:30. The next meeting will be held on Friday, May 13.

Honeymooning Here

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bobadilla, who were married in an elaborate ceremony at St. John's church in San Jose Sunday, are spending the week here at La Ribera hotel. The bride, the former Pacita Todt of San Jose and Hollywood, used to spend her summers here at Lobos Lodge. The young couple met in New York when Mr. Bobadilla was an aide to the Philippine Consul. He is a member of the editorial staff of the Philippine Mail, which is published by Delfin Cruz, printed in The Pine Cone job shop and circulates in the Philippine Communities throughout the three west coast states.

Cory-Ahrens Wedding

Carolyn Cory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hyde Cory, became the bride of John Ahrens of Redwood City in a lovely afternoon service at the Church of the Wayfarer on April 23. Uniting the couple in marriage was Dr. K. Fillmore Gray. Mr. Cory gave his daughter in marriage.

Carolyn's beautiful wedding dress was made of heavy ivory satin, with a high net yoke adorned with white lace around the shoulder line. The tight fitted waist was also trimmed with white lace, graduating to the hip line. From her tiny white lace cap hung a finger-tip tulle veil, and her bridal bouquet was made up of a spray of butterfly orchids, white lilacs and lily of the valley.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Edelen Cory, a junior at Carmel High School. Edelen wore a pale lilac dress with full skirt and tight waist. The top of the dress had an off-shoulder cape effect, and a large bow adorned the left shoulder. Bridesmaid Ruth Ahrens, sister of the groom, wore a dress of the same style in blue. Both attendants carried bouquets of lilacs, violas and baby yellow roses.

Carolyn is a graduate of Stanford, where she received her B. A. degree in International Relations. She is also a graduate of Carmel High School.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Downing Ahrens of Redwood City. A Stanford graduate in Economics, he is now employed with the Bank of America in San Francisco, where the couple plans to make their home.

Best man was Dr. Paul Stuart of Palo Alto. Ushers were Clyde Marshall and Charles C. Leavitt.

The reception after the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goodfellow of Pebble Beach. Following the reception, the couple left for a honeymoon in Santa Barbara.

Lows Leave for East

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Low are leaving their home on Ridgewood Road on April 29 to drive to New York, to visit their son and daughter-in-law, the Kirby Lows, and grandchildren, Claire-Marie and Eric.

They will also spend some time with Mrs. Low's brother, Edward Plaut, in Greenwich, Conn. The Lows will visit friends in El Paso and Bryan, Texas, New Orleans and Washington, where Congresswomen Helen Gahagan Douglas and Chase Going Woodhouse have promised to show them the House in action. They will return to Carmel around the first of August.

Bixby Creek Safari

Last Sunday Dr. and Mrs. Chester Hare got their children and some friends together and treated them to a day at their Bixby Creek camp. There was swimming and a barbecue.

The guests, in addition to the five Hare children, Gay Masten, Warren Masten, Ricky Masten, Don and Lee Hare, were Miss June Kress, Miss B. Williams, Bob Wear, Mardi Lloyd, and Dr. and Mrs. Courtland Sanborn.

Visitors Entertained

Mrs. Shreve M. Archer, Jr., the former Peggy Doud, Carmel High School graduate, and her son, Shreve Archer III, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Doud.

A luncheon for Mrs. Archer was given by her aunt, Miss Anita Doud, at the Del Monte Lodge last Wednesday. Guests of Mrs. Archer, all former schoolmates, were Mrs. Fry, Miss Carla Lepori, a student of the University of Freiburg in Switzerland, and Mrs. R. M. (Betty) Barbour, who is working for her master's degree at U. C. and is home for spring vacation.

A luncheon was also given for Mrs. Barbour by her mother, Mrs. W. D. Powell. Mrs. Powell entertained Fred Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Barbour, and Mrs. Marie Allen of Montana, who is visiting friends in Carmel.

Wessel-Storr Duo Piano Concert Is Warmly Welcomed

With a series of encores which constituted a fine program in itself, the duo piano team of Mark Wessel and Sherman Storr achieved a marked success with a near-capacity audience at the Sunset auditorium Tuesday.

Tschakowsky's Pizzicato, arranged by Mr. Storr, was very enthusiastically received, as was Chopin's A Minor Etude, their first encore. The first group on the program, consisting entirely of Bach numbers, was brilliantly executed.

The second section of Brahms' Variations on a Theme by Haydn, was not only studiously performed, but had a very well built climax. The clarity of Gigue in D Major from Toccata for Harpsicord, and the numerous other Bach numbers won the appreciation and approval of the audience.

The two pianists also played several of their own numbers. Brahms' Intermezzo and de Falla's La Vida Breve were other stirring pieces which the artists rendered on their two pianos.

Indeed, Emma Evans and John Burr are to be warmly thanked for treating Carmel's music lovers with a concert by this versatile two-piano team.—Ann Thoeni and Kathie von Meier.

"Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?" (Romans 6:16). This is the Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, May 1, on the subject "Everlasting Punishment."

The following citations are included in the sermon:

The Bible: "Make straight paths for your feet; lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed. Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord" (Hebrews 12: 13, 14).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Moral courage is requisite to meet the wrong and to proclaim the right. But how shall we reform the man who has more animal than moral courage, and who has not the true idea of good? Through human consciousness, convince the mortal of his mistake in seeking material means for gaining happiness. Reason is the most active human faculty. Let that inform the sentiments and awaken the man's dormant sense of moral obligations, and by degrees he will learn the nothingness of the pleasures of human sense and the grandeur and bliss of a spiritual sense, which silences the material or corporeal. Then he not only will be saved, but is saved" (p. 327).

The Disputed "Island"

BY BILL MARQUARDT, HIGH SCHOOL

At the entrance to the lower Carmel Valley there is an "island" in dispute. This "island" is a solitary piece of land that is in the shape of triangle where the Carmel Valley Road joins the Coast Highway. A county road running along the edge of the old Hatton Ranch and the "island", joins both highways, thus forming the triangle. The triangle has been zoned for commercial use for many years.

The home owners of Carmel Unincorporated, consisting of all outlying districts such as the Point, the Highlands and Hatton Fields, say that there is no need for a commercial district here as they are against further extension of commercialism in the Carmel area. They feel it would devalue their property to have in their vicinity such commercial enterprises as hotels, motels, service stations, garages, and other stores and shops for the conduct of any retail business.

Meanwhile the owners of the property in dispute have been developing all their property along the highway, beginning on the north side of the high school. They are also developing their holdings from the south side of the high school to the valley road. The owners feel they have the last say in what should be done with their property. They say they can develop it as they please, because in 1933 when the surrounding areas were zoned, this triangular area was set off by the planning commission as a commercial zone.

The pros and cons of this controversial question have been before the planning commission for months now. What's to be done?

The planning commission will meet again on the last Monday of next month, and anyone wishing to voice his opinion can be heard at that time.

Sunset School News

We have been learning the names of the musical instruments that play in an orchestra. We have been listening to records, too! Rusty in Orchestra-ville, Tubby, the Tuba, and The Little Tune That Ran Away are our favorites. Now, when we hear some music on the radio or phonograph we'll know what instrument is playing the tune as we have learned what a violin sounds like, how a piano plays, and many others. We want to go to the auditorium some time and see the big boys and girls play their instruments. We have toy instruments and a rhythm band.—Mrs. Marcia DeVoe's kindergarten.

Once I went on a train with my grandmother. When we went through a tunnel it looked like it was night.

—Sandra Settle, kindergarten.

I have a story about some children who put shoe polish on their faces like their daddy's beard.—Courtney Carswell, kindergarten.

ALONG THE TRAIL OF THE PADRES

Our class saw a movie on California. It was about the Salinas Valley and Monterey Peninsula. I thought that the best part was when it showed Carmel. We are studying California. Lettuce is the most important plant in the Salinas Valley. There are many sugar beets around Spreckles which has a very big plant.

Once Monterey was the capital of California.

—Nancy Surballe, 4th grade.

THE APPLE ROLL

About one week before Valentine's Day, we had an apple roll. We planned it to be at club meeting on Friday. Just as we turned the meeting over to the program chairman, she gave us a signal and we rolled apples toward the teacher's desk. You see it was to be a surprise for her. She took some of them home and left five of them in the room. She would eat one every day when we were not in the room.

—Walter Marx, 4th grade.

TROUBLES

A few weeks ago Queenie had some puppies. First, they didn't have their eyes open; then they had to have their tails cut; and now they need their ears clipped. Their tails were cut so we could tell them from the other dogs in the neighborhood.—Bobby Ford, 1st grade.

We saw a big black crab and a little baby green crab. Maybe the big black crab was the mother of the green crab!—Bobby Little, 1st grade.

We have a cafeteria in our school. And I like it very much. Today we are having weenies. And I know they will be good. Sometimes we have ice cream.—Barbara Bevan, 2nd grade.

I go to the Sunset School. I like to go to Sunset School because it has a slide and a jungle gym and some swings. I like to play jungle gym tag and play on the swings and on the slide.—Robin Way, 2nd grade.

One day I played football with my daddy. I caught the ball almost every time he tossed it to me. My mother came out and my daddy said she couldn't kick it, but she kicked it way out into the lot.—Peter Reenstra, 2nd grade.

We are studying forest and lake Indians. We are learning how they lived and hunted. Gee, imagine hunting a bear with bow and arrow. We are making teepees. I have a pattern, it's easy and so we are going to make an Indian village. Some children have woven grass mats for the floors. We'll have a real village. I'm chairman for the teepees.—Christopher Jones, 3rd grade.

We went to a big ranch last Sunday. I rode a pony. We climbed all over the hills. We found a skunk. He squirted on us, and boy, we ran and ran.—Pierce Phillips, 3rd grade.

My sister and I went to my friend's house. We played Dress Up. I put on a long green skirt and some high heeled shoes. My sister was our little girl. We had fun and laughed and laughed.—Caroline Miller, 3rd grade.

LAWS

Mrs. McCausland has been telling us about our world and the universe. She told us how the earth spins and how we stay on the earth and keep from falling off because of the Law of Gravity. I wondered what the people did before they passed this law, so I asked Mrs. McCausland.—Linda Huffman, 3rd grade.

MRS. WEAVER'S FILM ON MEXICO

Miss Norman asked us to come to her room to see a movie. Mrs. Weaver was there. She said that she had been in Mexico and had taken some pictures. Then she went over to the map and showed us where she had been. Then she showed us the pictures.

—Dennis Taplin, 4th grade.

MY TRIP

Late in April we are going to Jamaica. We will fly to New Orleans. From there we will get a boat and go to Cuba and then on to Jamaica. When I get there I will go swimming and sailing with my father. We will see many tropical fish in Jamaica. We will stay for about six weeks.—Peters Jenkins, 5th grade.
